GREENVILLE NEWS

Third Annual Picnic of Churches of Greenville at Mohegan Park Saturday, July 26.

On Saturday, July 26, comes the third annual picnic of the churches of Greenville. It will be held this year at Mohegan park, and an enjoyable time is assured. In the morning the children will be transported from their churches to the picnic grounds in automobiles. Many sporting games, including foot races, etc., will pass the time pleasantly for all, and appropriate prizes will be awarded the winners.
The prizes are on exhibition at the store of Pritchard & Son, and are attracting much attention and comment from all who see them.

Will Lay Cornerstone.
At 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon the cornerstone of the new building to be known as Pulaski hall, on North Main street, will be laid by the Polish society. The Polish brass band will render music, and among the speakers will be Mayor T. C. Murphy and Rev.
J. V. Maciejowski, pastor of St. Joseph's church. Many Polish people from the neighboring towns and villages will attend the laying of the cornerstone of the building. It is expected that the building will be completed about the first of November.

T. H. Curtis Improving.
No trace has been found of the man who struck T. H. Curtis, boss carter of the Shetucket company, with a rock Thursday, and the police are still looking for the man. Mr. Curtis, who is at the Backus hospital, is improving and will recover from the effects of the blow. When struck, Mr. Curtis received an indentation of considerable size in his skull, and Dr. Agnew, who is attending him, has succeeded in drawing the bone back in place.

Personals.
Miss Camilla Healey is the guest of relatives in Attleboro.
After spending a most delightful week at his uncle's farm in Lisbon, Mr. J. H. Curtis will return to his home on Fifth street today (Saturday).
Miss May Kilday, who has been seriously ill of typhoid fever for some time past, has resumed her position as stenographer in the office of the United States Finishing company.

TAFTVILLE

Death of Peter Fournier—Resident Here for Twenty-seven Years.
At 12:50 o'clock Friday morning the life of Peter Fournier came to an end in his home on Hunters avenue, after a year's illness with Bright's disease.
Born in St. Pie, Canada, Oct. 20, 1836, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Fournier, he passed his early life in his native city. Fifty-two years ago Mr. Fournier was united in marriage with Marie Picard, and twenty-seven years ago he located in Taftville, having since made his home here. Mr. Fournier started in the liquor business 21 years ago last May, first locating in Dion's block on Merchants avenue. Later he located in what is known as Letentre's block, and afterwards conducted the Taftville hotel, now owned by John DeJarlais, on Merchants avenue. Seven years ago he moved to his present location on Hunters avenue.
Mr. Fournier was a faithful member of the Sacred Heart church, but did not belong to any of the church societies. Besides his wife, eight children—six sons, Eugene and Anthony of Taftville, Adolphus of Plainfield, Alphonse of Norwich, Peter of Colorado, and Napoleon of Taftville, and two daughters, Mrs. Philip Desmarais of Norwich and Miss Pamela Fournier of Taftville, survive him. He also leaves 23 grandchildren, and there is a brother, Paul Fournier of Canada.
Mr. Fournier was one of the best known residents of Taftville and was highly respected by all. He led a life free from blemish and reproach. He was genial, kind and thoughtful, doing all in his power for the good of others.
His loss is sincerely mourned by his many friends, who extend their heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family.

More Deer Seen.
The number of deer in this vicinity seems to be rapidly increasing, as hardly a day goes by without one or more being seen. Thursday night about 6:45 o'clock three of the animals were seen on the baseball diamond at the Sandbank. The deer approached to within a few feet of the road and did not seem to mind the presence of some six or eight boys attracted to the Sandbank. At the approach of a horse and wagon the three deer sprang

NORWICH TOOK DRAFT QUIETLY

From 15,000 to 16,000 Men Were To Be Furnished From This Congressional District In 1863—President Names August 6th As Thanksgiving For Recent Union Victories.

The following are extracts from the Norwich Bulletin of this week fifty years ago:
July 12, 1863—Capt. James B. Colt of the 14th Regiment is home on a 20 day furlough.
A letter from Lemuel Manning reports Gordon Wilcox all right.
Henry B. Norton has returned from a visit to the parole camp at Annapolis. He reports the Connecticut boys there as being well cared for and in excellent spirits.

Draft Commences Here.
The draft commences here today. It is probable that instead of the draft today to have occurred on Monday.
The marshal's office, the towns hall will be occupied in its stead. The drawing will commence at 11:30 o'clock.

People generally in this vicinity are taking the prospect of a draft very good naturedly. Between 15,000 and 16,000 men are required from this congressional district to make up the quota and as we have already furnished the quota of 1862, the amount without hardly feeling it as a community, we are not disposed to get excessively excited over it.

A Deed of Bravery.
July 14, 1863—A deed of bravery is related to have occurred on Monday withdrawing from Winchester, when his retreat was intercepted and the 18th Connecticut was ordered to charge a rebel battery. Corporal Wm. C. Tracy, C. C. 18th, regiment, of Lebanon, Connecticut, bayoneted two gunners, killed a third, and captured a fourth cartridge box blown completely off and escaped uninjured.

Riot in New York.
There was quite a formidable riot in New York city Monday in opposition to the execution of the draft. The telegraph operator in this city received a dispatch about noon stating that the mob had put down the telegraph wires and destroyed telegraphic communication this side of New York.

Gunpowder Explosion in Mohegan.
Five persons were severely injured by the accidental explosion of gunpowder at the residence of Deacon Wm. B. Dolare in Mohegan on Thursday. They were Harry J. Do-laware, Aaron F. Rogers, Benjamin Rogers, Eleazar Fargo and Zachous Hanson, all badly burned on face and hands.

Soldiers Sent From Fort Trumbull.
July 15, 1863—One hundred United States soldiers from Fort Trumbull have been ordered to New Haven by train today. They are to form a part of the provost guard.

New York Postmaster's Home Pillaged.
The residence of Abraham Wakeman, postmaster of New York city was pillaged and destroyed last night.
A body of 350 policemen in New York were assailed by the mob with bricks and paving stones. The mob invaded the house, and destroyed intended to destroy it, but were persuaded to leave after obtaining the whiskey they demanded.

MIKE DIMERIO WILL RESIST EXTRADITION
Friends Will Use Every Effort to Keep Him in New York—Application Made for Papers.

Mike Dimerio, alias Michaelangelo Mignini, wanted for highway robbery and for the murder of a man, or more specifically for assault with intent to murder Melville Mason, will not come back to New York, he has been so badly treated by the police effort in the New York courts. Dimerio was arrested in Cherry street, a notorious Italian street in New York.
While he is held as a fugitive there State Policemen Downing and Virelli are making a constant effort to locate him in a house in New York. Downing got help, while Virelli watched the place. There were policemen at all doors and on the fire escapes when the officers were ready to go in for Dimerio.

OLD LYME PEOPLE FIGHTING TROLLEY ROAD
Have Injunction Against Line to the Connecticut River.

General Manager de Windt of the Shore Line Electric railway states that the right of way has all been obtained between the present terminal at Deep River through to Chester and that work on the construction of the extension will begin just as soon as possible and it is hoped to have the cars running through to that village in a few months. This will carry the line to the end of the original plans made many years ago.
Mr. de Windt is greatly disappointed that he is unable to push the work faster on the extension through Old Lyme which he hoped to have in operation by Aug. 1, but several injunctions that seem to him wholly uncalled for and unnecessary have been placed. The work. The injunctions are on sections on what is known as the Neck road where certain people are endeavoring to prevent the company laying its road notwithstanding its charter rights. Manager de Windt hopes that the work will be finished by September first but it is yet mere conjecture.

Francis Frechette at the Taftville postoffice for the week ending July 19.

Notes and Personals.

with a good attendance.

Fred Ardy of Occum is the guest of relatives in Middletown.

Cyril Teller has given up his position with Arthur Lambert.

The National Federation of Cloth Weavers assembled for their regular business session Friday evening, with Telegraph Operator Left His Key.

Another of the proverbially brave class of men who furnish us the telegraph men was attacked last night on his way home from his office. He did not read he suddenly announced that he was threatened and he "put out the light." By this gallant conduct of the telegraph operator at New Bu-chelle, we undoubtedly have lost some important late dispatches.

Important Moves on the Potomac.
On the Potomac there have been some important movements since Sunday. After the great battle and glorious victory at Sharpsburg, the rebel lines were steadily crowded in till Tuesday, when Lee was forced across the river. A dispatch from the Secretary of War says that Lee's retreat was a veritable rout, and we have reasons for believing that Gen.
Meade has made preparations for intercepting his retreat.

Negro Beaten To Death, Then Hung.
A negro was met in New York yesterday morning by a Zouave who advanced upon him, and shot him dead.
A crowd immediately seized the negro, beat him to death and then hung him to a tree.

Day For Thanksgiving.
July 17, 1863—The president has issued a proclamation appointing the 6th of August as a day of Thanksgiving for the late victories.

Close Saloons on Sunday Here A most sensible order from the mayor appears in our columns today, commanding all saloons to be closed on the Sabbath.

In New York the treasury building, custom house and other public buildings are protected from the draft rioters by planted cannon, defended by strong guards from the 65th regiment.
The city is to be patrolled by the military, and the draft rioters determined to put down the mob if he kills every man found in a crowd.

Two New Connecticut Regiments.
Orders have been issued from the adjutant general's office to recruit two new regiments of Veteran Volunteer Infantry to serve for three years for the war.

July 18, 1863—A substitute is wanted at the Bulletin office to whom a liberal bounty will be paid.

Free Academy Exhibition.
The seventh exhibition of the Norwich Free Academy will be held Thursday afternoon. On the programme were some stanzas by Frank A. Norton, commemorative of Noyes, Watts, Burdick and Schofield, graduates of the Academy, who since the late anniversary have fallen in their country's service.

Prize Winners at Academy.
The Newton Perkins prize medals at the Norwich Free Academy were awarded as follows: declamation, Frederic L. Norton; Greek, J. C. Atterbury; Latin, Charlotte C. Lee; English literature, Frank L. Norton; French, Mary Steadman; geology, Mary Watts; prize essay, Eliza D. Goodrich.
Gen. Brown issued a proclamation at the Academy of announcing virtual suppression of the riot, by advising citizens to arm themselves for protection of their lives and property.

NO FINANCIAL LEGISLATION AT THIS SESSION
In Opinion of Senator Brandegee—Knows of No Widespread Demand for It.

(Special to The Bulletin.)
Washington, July 18.—Senator Brande-gee this morning in answer to a question said: "I do not believe there will be any financial legislation at this session of congress. In the first place, I do not know of any widespread demand for such legislation, and in the second place I do not think the president can prevail upon the democratic majority to make a mistake in their policy. They have finished the work they were called together in extra session to do. It is admitted that the tariff will range from a duty of 55 per cent to 100 per cent. Massachusetts had 65, with a capacity of 44,676; Rhode Island 183, with a capacity of 15,400; and Connecticut 613, with a capacity of 27,845.

"I consider a bill dealing with the country's financial policy a mistake. It is important as the question of the tariff, and it should be given as much, or more, consideration. A mistake in the financial policy will in my opinion, work as much harm as a mistake in the tariff policy and will have a question of great effect. The present general tariff policy is a mistake. It contains many new sections which have not given the subject the proper study and they will not get the time to study it in the session. I think that no legislation is preferable to ill-considered or hasty legislation.

MAHAN TO WASHINGTON AND BACK AGAIN
Congressman Put in Busy Day for His District—Well Pleased with Tariff Bill.

(Special to The Bulletin.)
Washington, July 18.—Congressman Bryan Mahan arrived in Washington yesterday morning. He was of the opinion that the gentleman's agreement had expired and that he was due to give attention to the consideration of a financial bill. Upon arrival he learned that the committee on banking and currency might be able to report a bill by August 1, so he put in a busy day about the departments in the interest of his district and left for his New London home late last night.
When seen between visits at the down town departments he said he did not take any stock in the statement that Governor Baldwin was holding up the appointment of a successor to Judge Pratt or that he was giving his support to Seymour C.
Loomis of New Haven, for the place as the recommendation of a majority of the democratic officials of the state.
He said that Governor Baldwin was the rival of all the candidates, and that all the candidates were loyal supporters of the governor.
Mr. Mahan expressed himself as well pleased with the tariff bill as reported to the senate by the caucus of that body. He said it could not help but reduce the present high cost of living and thus carry out the promises made to the people prior to the election.
Undoubtedly, he said, someone will lose money by it, but he thought it would be a portion of the profits made by the manufacturers. He did not think the cause of the failure of the Yantic Woolen mills had anything to do with the tariff. He is of the opinion that the origin of the trouble dated much farther back than the discussion of the tariff bill.

CONNECTICUT HAS OVER 600 HOTELS.
What the Summer Resort Business Means For New England—The Largest Business This Season.

New England is said to be doing this year the greatest summer resort business in her history. Figures compiled by the New England lines would indicate that about 1,400,000 people spent their vacations within the confines of New England in the year 1912 and that the number of people who number will probably be greatly exceeded this year.

The railroads operating in New England try every year to get on their list every hotel and boarding house open to summer boarders. A compilation based on these lists and covering all the railroads shows that last year there were 4,406 hotels and boarding houses in New England, with a total capacity of 22,141 persons. For the total number of persons accommodated it would probably be fair to multiply the total capacity by six, figuring the average of a vacation being two weeks and the season to consist of twelve weeks. This would give 1,332,- 846 persons, accommodated in the season. Estimates based on these figures and from the reports of hotelkeepers would place the amount spent by these vacationists at, roughly, $100,000,000.

That the summer resort business is one of New England's leading industries is indicated when comparison is made with her agricultural figures.
The total value of all New England's crops in 1909, as given by the census, was $141,113,825. The total value of her vacation business in the same year was $50,720,766, or about half the estimated amount which summer visitors spent last year. There is probably no other section of this country where so much is reaped annually from summer boarders.

The compilation made showed that last year Maine had 1,256 hotels and boarding houses, with a total capacity of 59,074; New Hampshire had 1,157 with a capacity of 55,858; Vermont had 513, with a capacity of 9,194; Massachusetts had 695, with a capacity of 44,676; Rhode Island 183,
with a capacity of 15,400; and Connecticut 613, with a capacity of 27,845.
